FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents & Friends,

When we live under the banner and motto of "Love One Another" it could be easy to let its great message wash over us rather than allowing it to be a wellspring for ongoing growth.

Recently a friend of mine (a Marist Brother), Brother Bill Tarrant reminded me,

*"God never changes his mind about you
God is simply in
.love with you.
What God does again and again
is change your mind about him."*

God is there whenever we are open to him...

God comes disguised as others...

For us at St Michael's—who are the others?

Are we, as a community, continually open to his presence?

At St Michael's the constant building of relationships through liturgical celebrations, and in working towards our children's ongoing wholistic development is paramount.

Last week's Father's Day Liturgy was testimony to this goal, with over 100 families celebrating the life of Fatherhood.

I encourage you to accept our offer to be an active member of our community. I sincerely invite your participation in this weeks P & F meeting and of course our Family Fun Day.

RE NEWS

In next Sunday's Gospel we hear the parable of the unforgiving servant. The story of the unforgiving servant is a familiar one of forgiveness and mercy being shown but not passed on. The sting in the tail of this parable is Jesus' final warning that, 'So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives his brother from his heart.' This is an unsettling statement, as we believe God's forgiveness to be without measure and without end. Jesus warns that unless we seek to imitate God's forgiveness and forgive others 'from our heart' with compassion then we are not going to recognise the forgiveness of God and will cut ourselves off from it.

The whole idea of forgiving from the heart is a powerful contradiction of a popular concept: 'I can forgive, but not forget.' Is it really possible to forgive but refuse to forget? Surely holding on to a memory of hurt is holding on to the hurt itself and does not display that any forgiveness has occurred at all. To forgive but not forget is to keep count. How many times should I forgive the one who has hurt me? As many times as it takes!

Year 6 Canberra Excursion
26th/27th July 2011

The Australian Government recognises the importance of all young Australians being able to visit their National Capital. To assist parents in meeting the cost of the excursion the Government has contributed $20 per student towards the travel expenses incurred. This contribution will be paid directly to our school.

We would like to thank the Department of Education Science and Training, the Department of Transport and Regional Services for their support of this initiative. As part of this initiative students will be participating in projects that utilize the excursion and focus on either the history of our democracy, contributing to their local community or developing active leadership skills.
